

Download A History Of Apprenticeship Nurse Training In Ireland

Nurse education consists of the theoretical and practical training provided to nurses with the purpose to prepare them for their duties as nursing care professionals. This education is provided to nursing students by experienced nurses and other medical professionals who have qualified or experienced for educational tasks. Nursing is a profession within the health care sector focused on the care of individuals, families, and communities so they may attain, maintain, or recover optimal health and quality of life. Nurses may be differentiated from other health care providers by their approach to patient care, training, and scope of practice. Nurses practice in many specialties with differing levels of prescription ...A Brief History of Nursing in the UK. This paper provides a brief History of Nursing in the UK and is written by Professor B Gail Thomas. It identifies changes in the nursing profession, nurse education and medical advances from 1800; the changes from 1900 provide useful context for the Memories of Nursing project. The nursing degree apprenticeship will enable people to train "on the job," to become a graduate registered nurse through an apprentice route, meaning they will be paid whilst training.
